"Committed Quality through Continuous Excellence"

September 10, 2009

Dear Valued Customer,

Thank you for your business and loyalty. Due to sudden, severe increases in raw material costs, Saiden Technologies will be increasing all prices by $0.06 effective September 15, 2009.

We are very concerned about the effects this increase could have on our relationship with you and we can assure you we are doing everything possible to minimize the impact of these increases on all our customers.

Saiden Technologies will continue to work hard to keep costs down for you. We appreciate your business and look forward to continuously providing you with quality emulsions and polymers.

Your individual sales representative will be in contact with you to provide you with further details.

Sincerely,
